Looking Back on October

Sharing Your Roots – To Guide our Future

Forty-seven Immanuel members attended this gathering on the morning of Saturday, October 22, and the enthusiasm and sharing were heartwarming and encouraging. We heard about our fellow parishioners' memories from the past and what is important to them as we form the 'roots' of Immanuel.

Orange Shirt Day on September 30th saw our building filled with children again, as they met for a one-day event focused on Indigenous culture. Rocks were painted to remember the children who didn't come home from residential schools, and they are now displayed in the front lawn of the church.
