

Adult Beginners Acrylic Painting Class

At Immanuel Anglican Church

Here is your chance to learn to paint!

Classes are Tuesdays from 1:30 to 3:30 in the hall at Immanuel

It is a 6-week class beginning Tuesday, February 14th. We will skip the week of Family Day (Tuesday February 21st) as we have our School Days Out VBS that week, plus it's Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper! The last class will be March 28th.

Registration is required, as we need to limit the class to 10 participants. Register by calling the office or emailing info@immanuelanglicanregina.ca

Cost is $30.00 and can be paid prior to the first class by e-transfer to events@immanuelanglicanregina.ca, or bring cash to the first lesson. $30.00 includes all the supplies you need, but you should bring an apron or paint shirt, and if you have anything you can use as an easel on the table or something to prop up your work, that would be beneficial.

Everyone is welcome. No previous experience necessary.

Mary-Ann Dube Millard is our instructor. She will start us out with the basics- how to start a painting, how light works, how to use color and how to put it all together. We will start with a still life, then a landscape, then your choice of what you would like to paint. It should be a lot of fun and a chance to meet and get to know some of your fellow parishioners.

Mary-Ann can answer your questions if you call her at 306-539-3467
